event; an event that allows an untrained horse to develop the trust to accept his first saddle and rider in under 30 minutes. In this narrated event, your group will learn about Monty Roberts' fascinating life journey from his early days as a rodeo rider to trusted advisor to the Queen of England.

Afterwards, dine with author Monty Roberts and his wife, artist Pat Roberts, at an intimate barbecue offered in their private hilltop home. At dinner, great conversations will emerge about the importance of trust, overcoming adversity, achieving your vision and living strong at any age. This combined experience will transform your group and allows it to connect with a living legend.
