

Wednesday January 20, 2016

Greetings!

Breaking News! Monty Roberts in South Africa:

Saturday May 28, 2016: Cape Town	Saturday June 4, 2016: Johannesburg
Sunday May 29, 2016: Cape Town	Sunday June 5, 2016: Johannesburg

This is a once in a lifetime opportunity to see a world renowned horseman with a special gift with horses and people. See how Monty communicates with horses using their language and learn how to create willing partnerships of mutual trust and respect.

MONTY ANSWERS

Question:

I am passionate about bringing Natural Horsemanship and Spiritual Healing and Communication together for the benefit and well-being of the horse. I would love to know how Monty feels about this and whether he feels it is possible. So many people own and spend time with horses, but they just don't see or understand them!

~ Trilly Whitby

Answer:

Recent years have seen me hard at work using horses in an attempt to heal the stresses of combat veterans. It is also true that I have worked hard to find value in horses helping autism, youth at risk and battered wives. There is an enormous value for the human being able to learn trust from the flight animal. We know they can't lie, so when they choose to trust you is it profound.

It should be known that I am critically interested in all aspects of improving the welfare of horses. My education is in pure science. It is my opinion that a concerted effort will find within that world the answers we seek. I am of the opinion that the term 'natural horsemanship' is an oxymoron in itself. I will keep working on it!

Sincerely,
Monty

Monty's Principles

On Developing the Lead-Up program as part of Join-Up International

This is just the result that I prayed for when Katie Cunningham proposed to me to be a team and now we can see that our love and commitment in planning these workshops is giving beautiful results.

It seems like yesterday, but now we can be proud of giving our hearts and souls to help in guiding these kids through Monty Roberts lessons from the herd, to be the future leaders of their lives, community and beyond.

Is a pleasure to work together side by side with Katie and with the invaluable support of Judith Gibbons, and Raulito Pineda. All my love to Tinny, Monarca, Andromeda, Agu, Rosie, Doris, Bolero, Obelix, Carisma, Catori, Indiana, Valentina, Carmela, Shimauma and all the horses that are the most wonderful teachers!

Test yourself each week as I challenge you to answer the question below. I mean this. Sit down and write an answer. Don't wait for my answer next week. If you have been reading my Weekly Questions and Answers for the last six months, you should be in a position to do this. Send your answer to my team at:
askmonty@montyroberts.com

Why should you bother? Because it will help you focus. There is probably a comparable question in your life that needs answering - or will be. If you can gain insight into how to go about answering a practical question that is loosely related to your problem, this exercise will help you answer your nagging question. Then read my answer. I want all of my students to learn to be better trainers than me. That's good for you and good for horses!

~ Monty

Next Week's Question:

I work in adult education and am passionate about lifelong learning. Do you believe it is always possible to learn more about horses and are you still learning now at 80, or do you feel that horses have familiar responses and, once you have trained enough horses, you've learned everything you could?

SUCCEED: Digestive Health

"I have believed for years that digestive health has a major impact on a horse's happiness, performance and overall well-being. Just by owning and riding horses, we take them out of their natural environment. We keep them in stalls, we feed them grain, and we exercise them. All of this works against the horse's digestive health.

I also believe there is something you can do to care for your horse's digestive system. I've been using a product called SUCCEED® on my performance horses for many years now, with tremendous results." ~ Monty

Horse Sense for Leaders: Building Trust-Based Relationships Features New York Times Best-Selling Author Monty Roberts

"The connection made in this book between leadership and non-violence is extremely important. Many leaders have employed violence or cruelty to achieve their ends but Monty Roberts has gone in the opposite direction and shows how true leadership is about the development of trust (whether between a human and an animal or between humans) and encouraging those around one to reach their full potential. Everybody could benefit from absorbing the practices outlined in this book."

Andrew Rowan is the Chief Scientific Officer for The Humane Society of the United States.

Premise of the book: Monty Roberts, author of The New York Times bestseller, The Man Who Listens to Horses, has cooperated with the writing of a new book, Horse Sense for Leaders. The book borrows from the fascinating life of Roberts, known as the horse whisperer, for a highly engaging look at the significance of trust-based leadership. The book blends Monty's work as a world leader of non-violent horse training with current research on the value of a trust-based leadership approach. This unique approach allows for an interesting and provocative read on how leaders can engage followers in more effective relationships at work.
