Greetings!

Question

Monty, I have a question: How does someone find a career in training horses and horses in general? I want to get into a career training and working with horses. So thought I ask you for some advice. Thanks Monty!

Elley Cat

Answer

Dear Elley,

Without knowing your age or your motivations it is difficult to advise you. It is however easy to recommend that you get the best education possible from the best people you can find in the horse industry, who are willing to teach you. I have an Online University with over 500 lessons at this point in time. I am happy to have you continue to seek information from us and give us more information about you.

Sincerely,

MONTY'S CHALLENGE

Test yourself each week as I challenge you to answer the question below. I mean this. Sit down and write an answer. Don't wait for my answer next week. If you have been reading my Weekly Questions and Answers for the last six months, you should be in a position to do this. Send your answer to my team at: askmonty@montyroberts.com

Why should you bother? Because it will help you focus. There is probably a comparable question in your life that needs answering... or will be. If you can gain insight into how to go about answering a practical question that is loosely related to your problem, this exercise will help you answer your nagging question. Then read my answer. I want all of my students to learn to be better trainers than me. That's good for you and good for horses!

~ Monty

NEXT WEEK'S QUESTION

Do you ride with a whip, or use one on the ground? Do you call it a whip? Or a crop? Or something else? Do you think what you call it is important and if so why?
